Tiznow

With 2001 Eclipse Award Champions Tiznow (2000 Horse-of-the-Year) and Gourmet Girl, Cee's Tizzy has indelibly stamped himself into the annals of Thoroughbred history by becoming the first sire to have two California-bred national champions. He joins Irish River, Seeking the Gold, Deputy Minister and Alydar as the only sires represented by two divisional champions in a single season since 1988.

Gourmet Girl

– In 2001, Cee's Tizzy and Seattle Slew had the best percentage (12%) of domestic stakes winners from starters among leading North American sires.

– Cee's Tizzy sired the record-priced ($950,000) California-bred weanling and was the covering sire of the fourth highest broodmare ($2.6 million) sold at Keeneland in November, 2001.
